RE: Liaison assignments

Greetings from the composite group:

We recently held our first meeting over the June 24-27, 1993 weekend in Van Nuys. A comprehensive report from that meeting will be mailed out to you and all other conference participants shortly. In the meantime, however, we felt it essential to share some information with you.

One of the crucial discussions we had concerned communications between us and the other parts of world services. We felt it paramount to open lines of communications that will serve to ensure that full and thorough communications exist between your service body and our group. To that end, we've assigned all our members to serve as communication liaisons. The primary function of these liaisons is to provide any and all information requested by the various world service boards and committees. If the assigned liaison does not have the information requested, and it is available, he or she will be able to communicate a response back in as short a time as possible.

The member assigned to the World Service Board of Trustees is Jamie Scott-Hopkins. You may contact Jamie at 44-71-798-8458 to obtain information about our work or the inventory process in general. We would appreciate that, if you have any verbal input into our work, you contact Jamie who will convey your input to us at the first opportune moment. If, however, the input is in written form, we ask that you send it to us in care of Stephan Lantos at the World Service Office.

We thank you for your cooperation and continued support of our efforts.
